Five beat up man, damage property

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI, Jan 1: Five people allegedly beat up a man and caused damage to property by firing in Bath Island on Friday.

According to sources, Sheikh Amir complained to police that he was attacked by five persons, including a son of an influential political figure of Sindh, at a residence in Bath Island.

According to the complainant, the incident occurred when he protested to the five over the damage they had caused to his car parked outside the residence of his friend where he had come to visit him.

During the altercation, he alleged, he was beaten up by these drunk men who chased him into the house where fired shots. The bullets damaged property.

The police drew a blank on the incident.